To Whom it May Concern:

I just had the privilege of viewing "Daisy's Days" about the adventures of an adorable basset hound.

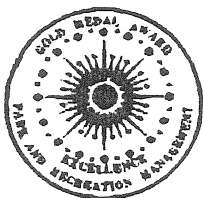

I thought it wonderful to see a video produced that will open many avenues for parents and teachers to encourage the children's ability to tell stories, draw pictures, and use their imagination.

As a former teacher and director of the Deerfield Park District Nursery School I feel "Daisy's Days" to be a great starting point for a rich literacy experience for children.

Sincerely,

Elaine Silberman
